Balman Tova

Graduate of the Bezalel Academy, painter and lecturer in design and art subjects, illustrator of children's books, animator and filmmaker.
Created with her husband many films, among them: "Little gray man", an animation film, won first prize at the Israel contest for short films, "Mitzi", on the subject of the Holocaust, also won first prize at the Israel contest for short films, the plasticine series on road safety "Bopi – The Child Who Came From The Stars" and many more. These films represented Israel at various well known international festivals

EXHIBITIONS

1999	"Written on stone", solo exhibition, "Binyanei Hauma" J.I.C.C., Jerusalem
2000	"Landscape Icons", solo exhibition, The Jerusalem Theatre
2001	"Earth and sky", solo exhibition, YMCA international center, Jerusalem
2003	"Roadscapes", solo exhibition, The Artists House, Jerusalem,
	"Spring salon", group exhibition, "Ein-Hod gallery", Ein-Hod,
	"Like a river", solo exhibition, The Jerusalem Theatre,
	"New Members",group exhibition at The artists house, Jerusalem,
2004	"My Jerusalem"group exhibition at The "Beit Hatanach" museum, Tel Aviv
	"Chairs", group exhibition, "Ein-Hod gallery", Ein-Hod
	"Palm-mania", solo exhibition, The Jerusalem Theatre, 2005
2005	"Judaica", group exhibition at The "Beit Hatanach"museum,
2007	Tel Aviv "Watermarks", solo exhibition, The Jerusalem Thetre