בית האמנים
ירושלים
Jerusalem
Artists' House

Ruth Horam

Ruth Horam, born in Tel Aviv in 1931, lives in Jerusalem. A graduate of St. Martin's School of Art, London, she has held some 45 solo exhibitions and has participated in dozens of group exhibitions in Israel and abroad. For several years now she has engaged in creating prints using mixed techniques, working at her studio and at the Jerusalem Print Workshop. Her sculptures may be seen, among other places, in public buildings in Jerusalem, Afula, Beersheva and Haifa.
Key words: Plastic artist, does mainly monotypes (one-off prints) and recycled materials environmental sculpture.

Selected One-Person Exhibitions

1960	Hadassah K. Gallery, Tel Aviv
1963	Horn Gallery, Luxemburg; Gėrard Mourgue Gallery, Paris
1964	Bat-Yam Gallery
1967	Artists' House, Jerusalem; second one-person exhibit in 1987; etching exhibit in 2000
1970	Press Center Gallery, Seoul, Korea
1971	Gallery Royal, New York
1976	Jacquester Gallery, Paris
1981	Palais Palffy, Vienna
1983	Galleri Selectum, Stockholm; NSA Exhibition Center, Sydney, Australia; Museum of Modern Art, Tampere, Finland
1985	Municipal Gallery, Asker, Norway
1990	Galerie des Platanes, Geneva
1991 – 1992	Gallery Bruno Meissner, Zurich
1994	Tel Aviv Municipal Gallery, Beit Ariella
1995	The Jerusalem Theatre Gallery, Jerusalem; International Congress Center, National Convention
1996	City Hall, Lyon, France; Rubin Museum, Tel Aviv; Mahanayim Gallery, Israel
1997	Lohamei Hagetaot Gallery, Israel; Jewish Community Center, Pittsburgh, PA, USA
1998	International Congress Center, National Convention Center, Jerusalem
1999	Wall paintings, 'Marshall Center', Jerusalem Gates Building, Jerusalem; Wall sculpture (colored metal) on the outside wall of student dormitory, Hebrew

	University, Mount Scopus, in collaboration with Magdalena Hefetz (9 m. x 5.80 m.)
2000	Wall sculpture (colored metal), School for the Arts, Jerusalem, in collaboration with Magdalena Hefetz (5 m. x 4.50 m.)
2001	"Window to the Mediterranean", Sde Boker Academy and Ben Gurion University
2002	Recycled sculpture, "Bustan 2001", HaYovel School, Jerusalem, in collaboration with Magdelena Hefetz