בית האמנים
ירושלים
Jerusalem
Artists' House

Hedva Harechavi

Poetess and painter, Born in Dgania B
Lives in Jerusalem. Mother of Elisha Harechavi
Graduated from Bezalel Academy of Art and Design, B.A. degree.
Her works were presented at solo exhibitions in Israel and different group exhibitions abroad.

Her first poems were published at "Al H'a Mishmar" literary idiom, with the selection and encouragements of Lea Goldberg.

4 books of her poetry were published:
For he is King, 1974
Adi, 1981
I just want to tell you, 1985
The One, 1993

Her poems were translated to many languages among them: English, Arabic, Russian, German, and were published as an anthologies around the world.

Selected Solo Exhibitions

1969	Watercolor paintings, Engel Gallery, Jerusalem
1972	Watercolor paintings, Engel Gallery, Jerusalem
1979	A Tribute to Heinrich, Watercolor Paintings, Artists House, Jerusalem
2009	Notes for Rana, Artists' House, Jerusalem

Selected Group Exhibitions

1980	3+3, Group exhibition, Watercolor Paintings, Artists' House, Jerusalem
1983	A Tribute to Louise Schatz, Hamarakia, Jerusalem
1984	Watercolor Artists, Ella Gallery, Jerusalem
1985	Jerusalem Artists, Grand Palais, Paris
1993	Group exhibition, Fisher Gallery, Jerusalem