

Magdalena Hefetz

B. 1944, Berlin; Lives and works in Jerusalem

Studied Ceramics in Berlin and graduated from the Bezalel Academy for Art and Design, Jerusalem

1978-82	Taught at the Bezalel Academy, Dept. of Ceramics
1988-95	Chairwoman of the Ceramic Artists Association of Israel
1989	Curated the traveling exhibition "Ceramics from Israel", Germany, Belgium, France, Spain, Portugal, Poland and Finland.
1990	Initiated and leaded the Symposium "Art and Industry", Beer-Sheva
1990	Participated at the 6th International Symposium, Römheld, East Germany
1991	Curated with Dr. G. Ofra "The Beginnings of the Israeli Ceramics 1932-1962"
1991-93	Taught at the College for Visual Arts, Beer-Sheva
1992	Participated at the International Symposium, Siklos, Hungary
1993-95	Art Director of the I. and II. International Ceramics Biennale, Beer-Sheva
1996	Artist residency at the Clay Studio, Philadelphia, USA
1996	Guest lecture at the University Raleigh, North Carolina, USA
2003-06	Participated at the Jewish-Arab Ceramics Symposium, Umm El Fahem
2005	Chairwoman of the Artists House, Jerusalem, Painter and Sculpture Association

Participated in numerous group exhibitions and held 13 solo exhibitions in Israel and abroad.

Works in Public Buildings*

- 1998 – Hebrew University, Mt. Scopus, Jerusalem
- 1999 – Jerusalem High School for the Arts, Jerusalem
- 2001 – Ha'Yovel School, Jerusalem
- 2003 – Ministry for Foreign Affairs, Jerusalem
- 2004 – High School, Beit Zafafa, Jerusalem

* All public works were made in collaboration with Ruth Hiram save the work at the Ministry for Foreign Affairs

Awards:

- 1998 – The British-Israel Culture Foundation

1999 – The Ministry of Culture and Education

1999– The Ceramic Artists Association of Israel