בית האמנים
ירושלים
Jerusalem
Artists' House

ZIPPORET KOHEN - RAZ

(1928 – 2010)

The artist was brought up and educated in Israel. She is a graduate of the Faculty of Humanities of the Hebrew University in Jerusalem (MA). She studied Fine Arts at the Bezalel Academy of Arts, Jerusalem, at the Ecole des Beaux Arts and the Academy de la Grande Chaumiere in Paris.

Her style varies and ranges from naturalistic realism to impressionism with symbolic trends. Her central theme is Jerusalem, including a series of variations on the theme of the Temple Mount.

Solo Exhibitions

1982	Gallery Schatz, Jerusalem: Landscapes and Figures – Acquarelle
1982	Chagall Artists House, Haifa: Israeli Landscapes – Oil
1983	Gallery Unterm Dach, Hamburg: Landscapes and Figures – Acquarelle
1985	Artists House, Jerusalem: Women Figures – Acrylic and Oil
1986	Gallery Antea, Tel-Aviv, Women Figures – Acrylic and Oil
1994	Gallery Amalia Arbel, Tel Aviv: Jerusalem Landscapes – Oil
1994	Municipal Museum, Naharia: Jerusalem Landscapes. From Concrete to Abstract – Oil
1999	Jerusalem Theater: Variations on the theme of the Temple Mount – Oil

Group Exhibitions

1979	Grand Palais, Salon d Automne, Paris
1985	Grand Palais, Salon des Beaux Arts, Paris
1985	Centre International de l'Art Contemporain. Le Salon des Nations, Paris
1986	Self -Portrait Exhibition, Artists House, Jerusalem
1987	Grand Palais, Salon du Printemps, Paris
1988	Gallery Hautefeuille, Paris
1991	Exhibition of Zefat Artists in Lille, France
1995	Exhibition of Zefat Artists at the Museum Yad-Le Banim, Petah Tikva
1997	Exhibition of Zefat Artists at Beth-Chagall, Haifa
1998	Exhibition of Zefat Artists at Palm Beach, Florida

2000 Carrousel du Louvre, Louvre, Paris