בית האמנים
ירושלים
Jerusalem
Artists' House

Shlomo Serry

1945	Born in Israel
1970-1973	Bsc. in Mathematics and Statistics, The Hebrew University, Jerusalem
1985-1986	Film and Photography studies, Camera Obscura, Jerusalem
1987-1988	Film and Photography studies, Beit-Zvi, Ramat-Gan
2005	A yearly seminar for directed Photography with Adi Ness, The Geo Photo College, Tel-Aviv
2005	Fourth year in Photography studies, Beit Berl College of Arts
2008	A yearly seminar for photography and art on environmental and social issues, Musrara school of photography, Jerusalem

Group Exhibitions

2005	"Duo", Graduates Exhibition, The Geo Photo College, Tel-Aviv
2005	"Highways Landscape", Graduates Exhibition, Beit Berl College of Arts and The Israeli Museum of Photography, Tel-Hai Industrial Park
2008	"New Members 2008", the Artists' House, Jerusalem
2008	"Jerusalem – Surface Fractures", Artists' House, Jerusalem
2009	"There are No Ladders to the Stars", Musrara Social gallery, Jerusalem

Projects

2003	Producing David Serry (Shlomo's father) exhibition, The Jerusalem Theatre
2004	Publishing David Serry (Shlomo's father) book – "David Serry Photographs 1930-1950", Even Hoshen Publishers, Ra'anana
2004	"The Family as an Aesthetic Space", The Israeli Museum of Photography, Tel-Hai Industrial Park
2007-2009	photographed and documented the ongoing construction in the "Har Homa" neighborhood in southern Jerusalem